

Repayment of TARP Preferred Stock Completed

First Maniwoc Bancorp, Inc. (Nasdaq: FMWC.OB), (”Company”) parent company of Bank First National, announced today that it has completed the repurchase of all 12,600 shares of preferred stock issued on January 16, 2009 to the U.S. Department of the Treasury as a voluntary participant in the Treasury’s TARP Capital Purchase Program. The Company paid $12.6 million to repay the preferred stock plus accrued dividends of $21,800. The repurchase was approved by the Treasury following consultation with and approval from the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.

“Our Company is positioned to be able to repay the Treasury’s investment and we will not need to raise additional capital to maintain our well capitalized position. We believe it is in the best interest of our stockholders to repay the Treasury’s investment,” said Michael B. Molepske, Chief Executive Officer. “The Treasury’s investment in our Company was an indication of our soundness and the Treasury’s acceptance of our repayment further highlights the financial soundness of Bank First National.”

“After the repayment of the preferred stock, we continue to exceed the industry’s “well-capitalized” standards and we believe this decision is in the best interests of our customers, stockholders and employees. We will continue to fund loan growth in our market with quality customer relationships and we will continue to support local economic expansion,” added David J. Diedrich, President.
